REVOLT IN TURKEY LED BY TROOPS

Cabinet Resigned at Demand of Mutineers.

SEVENTEEN REPORTED KILLED

The Few Soldiers Who Refused to Take Part In the Demonstration Were Massed at War Ministry and Fired on Any One Approaching the Building—New Cabinet Now Being Formed.

Constantinople, April 14—The troops of the garrison made a violent demonstration before the parliament building against the Committee of Union and Progress and the government. They demanded the dismissal of the grand vizier, Hilmi Pasha; the minister of war and the president of the chamber. The outbreak was caused by an order issued to the troops to the effect that they must obey their officers under all circumstances, even if called upon to shoot down their co-religionists.

The mutineers as the first move seized all the officers of the Committee of Union and Progress and held them prisoners. Only a few of the troops refrained from taking part in the demonstration. The latter, which were chiefly artillerymen and cavalry, are massed at the war ministry. They have orders to fire on any one approaching the building, and during the course of the day a number of persons were killed or wounded. Deputies were escorted to the chamber in order that they might vote on the question of forming a new cabinet and appointing a new president, but owing to the Easter holidays it was impossible to form a quorum.

Deputy Emir Arslan was killed on his way to the house in mistake for Hussein Jahid. Reports of the killed place the number as high as seventeen and the wounded at thirty or more. There is a report current also that the minister of justice, Refik Pasha, has been murdered, that the minister of marine has been wounded and the minister of war taken prisoner by the mutineers. This, however, has not been confirmed.

The cabinet met at the porte, and after a long consultation the ministers sent in their resignation to the palace. A new ministry is being formed. The latest rumor is that Tewfik Pasha, who was recently appointed ambassador to Great Britain, will be the new grand vizier, with Edhim Pasha as minister of war.

MADE ILL BY THREATS

Man Slated as Black Hand Victim Too Ill to Leave Money as Directed.

Audubon, N. J., April 14.—Harry Clausner, a victim slated by the Black Hand society two weeks ago, has suffered so much from the shock of the receipt of the communication that he is now suffering a severe attack of illness. His condition has become so grave that by the advice of his physicians he has been removed to a private hospital.

Owing to his illness, Mr. Clausner was unable to appear at the railroad station here and deliver his money as directed in the letter sent him. It is believed that the society knew of his condition, for he has not been annoyed since.

TRIED TO CREMATE GIRL

Man, Said to Be Rejected Lover, Alleged to Have Poured Oil on Her.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 14.—Said to have been disappointed in his suit for marriage, Joseph White, twenty-eight years of age, of this city, is alleged to have gone to the room of Magdalena Fortuna, fifteen years old, of Pittsburg, and attempted to burn the girl to death. White was arrested and the girl was seriously burned.

It is charged that White carried a can of gasoline to the girl's room, saturating her clothing and the contents of the room. It is said he then threw vitriol over her and set fire to the place. The girl's screams brought help and the flames were extinguished.

WM. W. WETZLER

One Time Resident of Bellefonte Dies in Oregon.

William W. Wetzler, a former resident of Bellefonte, whom many of our older readers will remember, died April 2nd. 1909 at his home in Portland, Oregon. He was aged 69 years and 11 months and was born in Liberty Twp. At the breaking out of the civil war he enlisted in Capt. Austin Curtin's company, Co. D, 45th Pennsylvania Infantry. This was in March 1862. He was mustered out as a Corporal in 1865. He was a prisoner of war from Sept. 1864 to January 1865.

Mr. Wetzler and Mr. W .T. Twitmire of this place, were in partnership in the tin and store business in the room now occupied by the Republican office from 1868 to 1873 when the partnership closed. Mr. Wetzler went west in 1875. He became a mail clerk running between Portland and San Francisco and was one of the pioneer mail clerks of the Pacific coast.

For past nine years he was transfer clerk at the Union depot in Portland. Surviving him in this county are one brother, Lewis Wetzler, of Milesburg and two sisters, Mrs. Louise Miller, of Howard, and Mrs. Maria Schenck, of Hagerstown, Md.

The funeral took place at 2:P. M. Tuesday at his late home and at the Portland Crematornim at Sellwood.

Death of G. G. Pottsgrove.

George Gray Pottsgrove, a well known citizen of Philipsburg and veteran of the civil war, died at his home in that place Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. His death was due to a complication of diseases hastened by a fall on the stairs at his home several nights ago.

The deceased was born at Stormstown, this county, December 20th 1831 making his age at time of death 77 years 3 months and 23 days. On March 4 h 1856 he was married to Miss Mary Gray at the home of her parents in Half Moon Valley. Three children were born to this union but all have since died. He is survived by his wife and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Samuel Rishel, of Johnstown.

During the civil war he was a member of the 149th regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was a resident of Philipsburg for the past 31 years and was employed for many years as an accountant by the late I. V. Gray. Of late years he has served as a Notary Public having been re-appointed by Gov. Stuart. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church over forty years and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Mrs. Charlotte Morse, a native of Bellefonte and a sister of Mrs. A. B. Steele, of this place, has been called upon to mourn the loss of her husband, Major John W. Morse, which sad event occurred at their home in Philipsburg, Montana, Saturday March 27th at the age of 76 years 7 months and 29 days. Heart disease was the cause of death. He was a well known merchant, a native of the state of Maine but for over thirty years was a leading citizen of Philipsburg Montana.

He is survived by his wife who was Miss Charlotte Emmel, of this place; two sons, Frank D., of Drummond and George W., of Park City, Utah., and one daughter, Mrs. James W. Rogers, of Helena. Mrs. Morse, who is in delicate health, visited here only a few months ago.

BIG BLAZE AT ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Fifty Dwellings, Several Churches and Factories Burned.

100 FAMILIES ARE HOMELESS

Militia Are Guarding the Household Effects Saved by the People—Hebrews Thought It Was the Second Coming of the Messiah and Tore Their Hair and Prayer In the Street. Loss Estimated at $500,000.

Rochester, N. Y., April 14.—Swept along in the face of a twenty-five mile gale, fire destroyed several sections of the city and did damage estimated at $500,000. For a time it was thought that a great portion of the city would be swept, and aid was summoned from Buffalo and Syracuse. Generously and promptly the out of town firemen responded with apparatus, but ere they reached the scene the heroic work of the local department and of volunteers had gotten the flames under check and their assistance was not required. One hundred families are homeless and militiamen are in the affected zones guarding what little the people saved of their household effects.

Flames Jumped Nearly a Mile.

The Palmer building, a four-story brick structure devoted to manufacturing interests, at Main and Gibbs streets, was the starting point of the conflagration, which spread over a wide area, and then jumped nearly a mile and started a second series of fires of such proportions that aid was summoned from Buffalo and Syracuse.

Buildings which were destroyed, in addition to about fifty residences, were the Palmer building, Temple Berith Kodesh, First Reformed Church of America, the Ward apartments and the First German Lutheran Zion church. The St. Peter's Presbyterian church, the Palmer lumber yards and several small firms on Main street were damaged.

The many scenes of panic among the residents can only be imagined. Apparently all reason was lost and there was but one thought—the city was doomed. Some of the women threw from the windows or houses not yet burning beds, bureaus, tables and all sorts of articles of furniture and personal belongings. In this way considerable property was needlessly demolished.

The fires broke out so frequently in the northeastern part of the city that companies could not be dispatched to all of them, but volunteer brigades helped in keeping down the fire loss.

Panic In Jewish Temple.

The Chatham, Nassau and Kelly street section is in the Jewish district of the city. Tuesday was the last day of the Feast of the Passover, and many of the Polish Hebrews, seeing the pall of smoke and the fire falling on all sides, interpreted the situation as the outward, visible sign of the second coming of the Messiah. Men, women and children tore their hair and knelt in the streets to pray. Their shouts were terrifying. Still others seized armfuls of goods from their houses and rushed with them into the street or into other houses, where the advancing fire later ate them up. One woman, Mary Kirschnamsky, went violently insane.

Rochester is terror stricken. The conflagration was the culmination of an uninterrupted series of fires for weeks, many of which have been charged to incendiarism.

Automobile News.

On Wednesday John Porter Lyon received a new Chalmers Detroit automobile for C. W. Meyers at State College. The machine is the same model as the one in use by Mr. Lyon the past six months, only that it is fully equipped with a magneto top, etc. The Chalmers Detroit has given good satisfaction here and Mr. Meyers has now with out doubt the best machine at State College.

George A. Beezer and D. G. Stewart went to Williamsport on Wednesday and brought to Bellefonte the latter's Buick runabout. It is equipped with a single rumble seat and is painted red. Thus the doctor enters the ranks of the Bellefonte automobilists and from now on he will have his pleasure and trouble with the rest of them.

Willis Wian on Monday will start an automobile hack service in Bellefonte. He has secured John Sebring's model D Franklin touring car and will haul passengers to and from any part of town, or will go on a trip whenever desired.

MAN SLAIN, BODY BURIED IN CELLAR

Carlisle Widow and Brother Arrested For Murder.

BOOTBLACK HEARD SHOTS

The Police Were Notified and a Search Revealed Victim's Body Under a Pile of Stones In Rear Cellar—Revolver Covered With Blood Also Found.

Carlisle, Pa., April 14.—As a result of the alertness of James Gargulajos, a bootblack, Mrs. A. Pishotta and her brother, Angelia Formatore, who recently came to Carlisle from Pittsburg, are in the county prison here, charged with the murder of Mrs. Pishotta's husband, John Pishotta, a wealthy Greek confectioner of this place.

Gargulajos was employed by Pishotta to run a bootblack stand in the same building in which his store is located. He slept in a room adjoining the Pishotta's, in the rear of the building.

He was awakened by several revolver shots in their room. Three of the bullets passed through the partition and flew over his head. Cowering with fear, he lay quiet in his bed, and about a half hour later heard a sound as of a body being dragged downstairs.

When all had become quiet, Gargulajos arose and hurried to the police. Chief of Police Fought summoned the entire city force and, with a detective named Bentley, surrounded the Pishotta store.

Mrs. Pishotta and her brother were arrested and taken to the office of Magistrate Hughes, who held them on the charge of murder. A search of the building was made and the blood-covered body of Pishotta was found in the rear cellar under a large pile of stones, boards and boxes.

The authorities then searched the trunk of Mrs. Pishotta's brother, and a revolver colvered with blood and several Black Hand letters were found in the trunk.

Several years ago, after a quarrel, Mrs. Pishotta informed the police that her husband was a fugitive from justice in Cleveland, where he was wanted on a charge of bribing a jury. He was arrested and taken west, where he served a term in the penitentiary. He returned recently to his home here, and it is believed the old quarrel was renewed.

The coroner's examination of the body of John Pishotta shows that he did not die from bullet wounds, but that his throat was cut from ear to ear. The wife's story is that he quarreled with her over the day's cash and beat her. She called for help and her brother came. Pishotta shot at him, and Mrs. Pishotta ran into the yard and remained all night. The wife's brother has made no statement.

Belief In World Wide Shortage Sends Price Soaring.

Chicago, April 14.—Wheat for delivery in May, July and September established new high record marks at the opening of the board of trade.

Cleveland, O., April 14.—Mr. and Mrs. James P. Boyle, under arrest at Mercer, Pa., on the charge of kidnapping Willie Whitla, of Sharon, Pa., were again indicted by the Cuyahoga county grand jury on the charge of child stealing and harboring a stolen child. This step was taken as a precaution against the possible failure of the Pennsylvania authorities to obtain a conviction.

Baltimore, April 14.—Charles Ridgeley Dimmitt, better known in theatrical circles as Ridge Waller, of the Lafayette hteater, Buffalo, N. Y., ended his life by shooting himself in the mouth over the grave of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Dimmitt, in Greenmount cemetery.

THE BOXING MATCH.

Held in the Armory Wednesday Evening.

On Wednesday evening a boxing exhibition was held in the Bellefonte Armory under the direction of Clyde Blackford. There was a fair size audience present but not near enough to pay the expenses. The boxing matches were clean and lively contests.

The first bout was between the Taylor brothers and resulted in a draw.

The second bout was between Buck Gilbert, of Sunbury and Short Richener, of Williamsport. This was an interesting bout but resulted in a draw.

Then there was a four round draw between John Gordon and Kid Ward, both are local boxers. It was a lively scrap but resulted in a draw.

Then came the main event of the evening a six round contest between Will McCoy of Philadelphia, and Kid Snyder of Jersey Shore. This was a hummer from start to finish. Snyder knocked McCoy out in the 4th round with a solar plexus blow McCoy was out 35 seconds.

Robert Guys of Williamsport acted as referee in a very satisfactory manner. The best of order was maintained no drunks were admitted and some of the best people in town were in attendance.

Academy Defeats Bellefonte

The picked nine of "star" ball players which played the Academy a ten inning game Wednesday included such excellent players as Morris Otto, Harry Otto, Eli Keichline and Roberts of Potter—Hoy's store who by the way is a cracker jack performer on third base. In spite of the wind which interfered with good batting the contest was one of the cleanest and prettiest ones ever witnessed on the Bellefonte grounds. For nine innings neither side scored a run. In the tenth inning the Academy bunched their hits and won out by the score of 2-0. Bolton pitched a great game for the Academy and Kline for Bellefonte.

The ball lovers will have an opportunity of witnessing an exciting series of five games to be played between these two teams on Tuesdays and Thursdays after school and business hours. The interest in base ball depends upon how evenly matched the contesting nines are. Wednesday's game proves that the series will afford genuine sport.

The first game of the series will be played on Tuesday afternoon Apr 13, at 4.15 sharp, the second on Thursday afternoon Apr 15, at 4.15 sharp. The admission fee will be 15 cents, or 25 cents for a gentleman and lady.

The small boy who can't afford to pay but a nickel will be admitted for that price.

Gen. Booth, 80, Sends Message To Nation

General William Booth, whose eightieth birthday is to be celebrated throughout the world next Saturday, has replied to the scores of congratulatory cablegrams already recived from state Governors, Mayors of leading cities and other men of prominence, with a message to the American people. The message is as follows:

"After spending eighty years in this world with almost countless opportunities for observing the purposes for which men generally live and the disapointments they so commonly suffer, it seems reasonable that I should have formed some opinon as to the course they should follow:

"If the American people will seek the honor of God, the reign of righteousness the welfare of the friendless poor, the riches that endure forever, with the same self-sacrificing avidity with which they seek the wealth and pleasures of this world, they will have a good chance of finding that life of satisfaction which now so often eludes them."

SENATE READY FOR TARIFF BILL

Amended Measure Reported to Committee This Morning.

REVISION TO BE DOWNWARD

Senator Aldrich Says Seventy-five Per Cent of the Articles Used by the People Have Been Reduced and the Free List Has Been Lengthened to a Surprising Extent.

Washington, April 12.—The Payne tariff bill, as amended by the senate committee on finance, was presented to the full committee this morning. An effort will be made to induce the minority to consent to the reporting of the bill to the senate today, in which event it will be allowed to go over until Thursday, when Chairman Aldrich will make a detailed explanation of its provisions. It is probable that he will be followed by Senator Daniel, the ranking Democratic member, who will outline the position the minority members expect to assume.

Senate leaders would not predict how much time is likely to be occupied in the discussion of the portion of the bill fixing rates of duty. A large number of important items are to be submitted to the judgment of the senate without recommendation, the purpose being to convince the senate and the country that the committee has not arbitrarily assumed the power to make a tariff bill and that it recognizes the right of members of congress not on the tariff framing committees to help to shape the tariff bill so far as the controverted schedules are concerned.

Members of the finance committee have discussed their proceedings with greater freedom than ever before in the history of tariff legislation. Senator Aldrich asserted that 75 per cent of articles used by all the people had been reduced and that the free list had been lengthened to an extent that would be surprising to everybody. The members of the committee have done their best to make their recommendations popular, and they predicted that their efforts would be appreciated.

In placing a large number of articles on the free list and in reducing duties on many others it has been found necessary to materially increase the duties on many luxuries in order to produce necessary revenues. The Payne bill increased materially the rates on brandy, alcohol, gin, grain spirits, cordials and liquors, but made practically no increase on champagnes and still wines. The senate committee has decided upon an increase amounting to about 25 per cent above existing rates on wines of all kinds, and has made increases above the Payne bill on other spirits.

At a meeting of the committee it was decided to add coal to the list of subjects on which the advice of the senate, without recommendation, is to be asked.

Man Who Fell Ninety Feet Signs the Register With Pen In Teeth.

Punxsutawney, Pa., April 7.—James Sharkey, swathed like a mummy and lying on a cot in the city hospital, peeped with one eye from his bandages and watched the ceremony that made him a husband. A week ago he fell ninety feet from a bridge.

Miss Bessie McLaughlin was the bride. The marriage register was signed by the injured man, but he had to hold the pen between his teeth to do it, making his mark.

Sharkey fell from a railroad bridge and both arms and one leg were broken, his abdomen was ripped open and his face was bruised almost beyond recognition and one eyelid split. He did not lose consciousness and demanded that his wedding plans be carried out.

GLANDERS FROM PET HORSE KILLS WOMAN

Fondled Favorite Animal Infected With Fatal Disease.

Doylestown, Pa., April 7.—Through her fondness for a very gentle horse, Mrs. John W. Fenner, of Hilltown township, died of glanders, a fatal disease with which her favorite horse was afflicted.

It was Mrs. Fenner's custom to pet the horse and fondle its head, in which way she readily contracted the disease, which has not appeared in this county very often.

The symptoms were so mild that until last week, when she became alarmingly ill, it was not suspected that she had the disease.

To prevent the spreading of the glanders, four horses on the farm were killed and the premises will be under the strictest quarantine.

LIFE SAVER REWARDED

Aged Woman Gives Engineer Half Dollar For Timely Warning.

Delmar, Del., April 7.—"Here, sir, is a dollar for yourself and fireman for saving my life a few days ago and I want to get you a nicer present when I go over to Norfolk," said Laura Davis, an aged colored woman to Engineer Edward T. West, of this town.

West was running the Norfolk express south a few days ago, when an unknown woman stepped almost in front of his engine. He blew his whistle, which attracted her attention and gave her time to step aside just as the train sped by her. This was the last West thought of it until the woman came to him and gave him two Columbian half dollars.

West handed one of the pieces to his fireman, L. H. Cox, and the prizes are the first they have received during their long service as engineer and firman.

If it proves successful it will replace horse cars on all the lines where they are still in use in this city.

$1 DUTY TO BE RETAINED

An Attempt to Take Hides From the Free List Was Defeated by Overwhelming Majority — Wrangling, Confusion and Fiery Language Marked Debate on the Schedules.

Washington, April 7. — Wrangling, confusion, captious objections, personalities and language bordering on vituperation marked the first day's discussion of the Payne tariff bill for amendment in the house of representatives. With practically a full attendance, the members were wrought up to a high tension and were prepared to fight to the last ditch for those things which their constituents were demanding.

The entire day practically was consumed in discussing the lumber and hides schedules. Led by Mr. Tawney, of Minnesota, the advocates of free lumber in the rough went down to defeat by the narrow margin of six votes, following the striking out of the countervailing duty on lumber.

An overwhelming majority was mustered against amendment by Mr. Scott, of Kansas, taking hides from the free list and fixing a duty upon them of 10 per cent ad valorem.

The barley schedule came in for a lively discussion, and when the bill was laid aside for the day there were pending two amendments, one raising the rate in the Payne bill from 15 to 25 cents a bushel and the other fixing the rate at 10 cents per ad valorem.

The sum total of the day's work, with the exception of the elimination of the countervailing duty on lumber, which was a committee amendment, was to leave the bill in identically the condition in which the committee reported it. This grants free raw hides and a duty if $1 per thousand on sawed lumber.

The amendment to the lumber schedule strikes out the proviso in paragraph 197 of the Payne bill. The paragraph fixes the duty on sawed lumber at $1 per thousand feet and also fixes the duty on other classes of lumber. The proviso requires that the maximum rates provided for in sections three and four of the bill shall be imposed upon lumber coming from any country which fixes an export duty on lumber shipped to the United States or which in any other way discriminates against or restricts the exportation of lumber or other forest products to this country. The paragraph was directed especially against Canada, and in case of discrimination would have had the effect of increasing the rates provided for in the main portion of the paragraph.

MINERS SUBMIT COUNTER OFFER

Agree to Renew Agreement With a Few Changes.

STILL SEEK RECOGNITION

New Proposition Is Signed by the United Mine Workers of the Anthracite Field—It Is Believed an Amicable Settlement Will Be Reached.

Philadelphia, April 9.—At the conclusion of a two-hours' conference between the operators and a committee representing the anthracite coal miners both sides seem as far from an ultimate solution of the working conditions governing the hard coal fields as ever. The miners' representatives presented a modified proposition. In this new proposal the miners agree to the renewal of the recently expired wage agreement with a few changes.

These changes are provided for in the following language:

"It is understood and agreed that if wages have been reduced during the past three years under the stipulation that it was new work, or for other cause, such wages shall be restored and the same rate of wages, as provided by the award of the strike commission for the same kind of work, shall remain in force during the life of this agreement.

"It is further agreed that the right to hire and discharge is vested exclusively in the mine manager or operator, and in all cases of discharge the person or persons discharged shall have the right of appeal, and if it is shown after thorough investigation that he or they were discharged without good and sufficient cause shall be reinstated to their former positions.

"No suspension of operation shall take place during the investigation and final adjustment of any differences that may arise between employer and employes.

"April 8, 1909. On behalf of the anthracite operators—on behalf of the United Mine Workers of Anthracite."

It will be seen from the foregoing that the agreement is to be signed by the United Mine Workers of the anthracite field. The operators have maintained that the United Mine Workers of America were partial to the soft coal interests and therefore always refused to recognize the union. Wednesday the operators still refused to recognize the organization and practically said that the only proposition they had to offer was the renewal of the old wage agreement.

No statement was given out by the operators, and it is not known how they view the proposition of the miners, carrying as it does the recognition of the union, in a different form than originally presented.

Operators Grant First Demand.

It was learned that during the conference the first of the added demands of the miners had been agreed to by the operators. President Baer, after a brief conference with President W. H. Truesdale, of the Lackawanna Railroad company, in reference to the dispute over "new work," made the following announcement:

"We state officially that hereafter any controversy relating to new work may be submitted to the board of conciliation to determine whether the condition of the veins and the work are the same, and if they are found to be the same, then the rates existing on old work shall apply to the new."

This virtually grants the first of the three added paragraphs inserted by the miners in the operators' ultimatum, and at their request was put in writing.

Notwithstanding the fact that several of the mine workers' officials assert that an agreement is not probable at the present time, a belief prevails that an amicable settlement will be reached.

ment providing for state wide prohibition, thus making the subject a matter of active controversy for two years, Governor Hadley said that the test to be applied by the legislature was whether any useful public purpose would be served.

Governor Hadley favored the severing of saloons from breweries and distilleries and of whisky dealers from politics. He suggested license for clubs in order that Sunday observance may be controlled, and favored laws for the establishment of district local option.

STRIKES A BLOW AT OIL TRUST

House Cuts Duty to One Per Cent. on Petroleum.

Washington, April 8. — Wednesday was a bad day for the Republican organization of the house. By a coalition between some Republican "insurgents" and the Democrats, the ways and means committee was bowled over and the advocates of free crude oil and its products won a signal victory, when an amendment by Mr. Norris, of Nebraska, placing the insignificant duty of 1 per centum ad valorem on those articles was adopted by a substantial majority.

A decision of the chairman that amendments could not be offered to the oil schedule other than the one covered by the special rule of last Monday and which provided for the removal of the countervailing duty on crude petroleum and applying an ad valorem duty of 25 per cent, was overturned, and not even a fervid appeal by the speaker, in an endeavor to rally the Republican forces, was sufficient to stem the tide avowedly against the Standard Oil company. By a practically unanimous vote the countervailing duty went out, as the committee had recommended.

On all other propositions the committee was sustained. The barley schedule ran the gauntlet without a change. Tea and coffee were placed on the free list, and th duty on barytes increased from 75 cents a ton to $1.50 a ton.

SPARROWS ATTACK LINEMAN

Birds Resent Being Forced From Nests In High Switchbox.

Chester, Pa., April 8.—William Duffee, a lineman in the employ of the Bell Telephone company, was attacked by sparrows while on the top of a pole along the Chester pike.

Duffee climbed up to open a switchbox, when he found that the box had been pre-empted by a dozen of the birds which had built their nests there. He tried to drive the sparrows out, but they resisted the efforts of the home-destroyer, flying at him viciously, pecking his arms and face. More sparrows came to mix in the fuss.

"There seemed to be a million of the birds swarming around me," said Duffee, "and I thought at one time that they would tumble me to the ground."

With a pair of pliers he killed a number of the birds and drove the rest away.

Senor Castro's wife will continue on board the Guadeloupe to La Guayra.

Caracas, April 8, via Willemstad, Curacao.—The Venezuelan government has solicited France to ascertain whether or not difficulties would be encountered if Cipriano Castro were arrested on board the steamer Guadeloupe at a Venezuelan port. The reply of France indicated that she would make no protest in such an event.

COAL MEN ARE DEADLOCKED

Conference Adjourns Without Reaching Agreement.

MODIFIED DEMANDS REJECTED

Mine Workers Will Not Strike and There Will Be No Suspension Unless Operators Order a Lock Out. Wouldn't Recognize Union In Any Way.

Philadelphia, April 10.—After conferences extending since Wednesday the anthracite coal operators and the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, representing the miners, at which the question of a wage agreement was discussed to replace that brought about by the anthracite strike commission, the operators rejected the modified demands of the miners, and the conference adjourned dead-locked.

There will be no strike inaugurated by the mine workers, however, and the only danger of a suspension of mining in the near future, according to the mine workers' officials, arises from the possibility of the refusal of the operators to permit the miners to work without an agreement.

The modified demands of the miners requested that the mine workers be recognized as "Anthracite Workers" and that certain conditions regarding new work by the miners in which wages were involved and which would give increased pay to the miners. Although the entire proposition of the miners as modified was rejected, the operators gave out a statement in New York, where they went immediately following the conference, in which they claim that they offered to agree to submit this complaint to the conciliation board, created by the anthracite strike commission When the attention of President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America, was called to the operators' attention, he said: "I have no comment to make." When pressed as to his views concerning the operators' concession regarding new work, he said: "Bugs." He would not discuss the matter further.

Following the conference the district boards of the United Mine Workers organization from the three anthaacite districts of Pennsylvania went into conference, and after a conference lasting nearly all the afternoon adjourned to meet again today. At the conclusion of the meeting it is said a statement will be given out covering the miners' view of the situation.

The bone of contention is the refusal of the operators to recognize the mine workers' union in any way.

HOUSE PASSES TARIFF BILL

Payne Measure Goes Through by Vote of 217 to 161.

SOME OF THE CHANGES MADE

Oil Was Placed on the Free List, But Free Lumber Was Voted Down—Duties Increased on Gloves, Stockings and Barley—Tobacco Raisers Must Not Pay Manufacturers' License to Sell Crop.

Washington, April 10.—After three weeks of consideration the Payne tariff bill was passed by the house of representatives by a vote of 217 to 161. One Republican (Austin, Tennessee) voted against the measure, and four Democrats, all from Louisiana, Messrs. Broussard, Estopinal, Pujo and Wickliffe, voted for it. An attempt by Champ Clark, the minority leader, to recommit the bill with instructions, signally failed.

The members were keyed up to the highest pitch, and a practically full membership remained on duty throughout. The final vote demonstrated the capacity of the Republican organization to get together. The situation with respect to lumber was greatly relieved to the Republican leaders when it became manifest that the advocates of the proposition placing it on the free list were in the minority. Because of that fact Mr. Fitzgerald, of New York, charged that a midnight deal had been made whereby free lumber was to be voted down and the rates on barley and barley malt increased, and this notwithstanding the denials of Messrs. Mann (Illinois) and Cushman (Washington), who offered the barley amendments.

When the bill actually was passed the Republicans cheered lustily, some dancing up and down the aisles and patting their fellow members on the back.

Oil on Free List.

One of the principal changes effected in the bill since its introduction was the placing of petroleum upon the free list. This involved a more seriously contested fight than any of the other amendments. Speaker Cannon, during debate on the amendment to reduce the duty, took the floor in defense of the higher rate of duty. Although an amendment to place oil on the free list was lost Thursday a similar amendment offered by Chairman Payne was carried.

Among the other important amendments were those striking out the provision for a duty on tea and the countervailing duty proviso on coffee. The elimination of the maximum duty of 20 per cent on coffee, contained in the maximum and minimum section of the bill, was also significant.

To the free list were added evergreen seedlings, cloves and nut oil, which is used in making varnish

The section restricting the contents of packages of tobacco was amended to conform to the present law in order that union labels may not be excluded from such packages. The drawback section was added so that it could not be taken advantage of for the purpose of speculating in grain, and the Philippine free trade provision was amended so that rice will not be admitted free from the islands. The countervailing duty clause on lumber was stricken out, but a strong effort to place lumber on the free list did not succeed.

Where Duties Were Increased.

The duties on barley, barley malt, charcoal iron, pineapples in crates, saccharine, medicated cotton and cotton collars and cuffs, as originally in the bill, were increased.

The internal revenue law was also amended so that raisers of tobacco will not have to pay a manufacturers' license in order to dispose of their leaf tobacco. There were several technical changes in the steel schedule, principally downward, and lace curtain and netting machines were included in the proviso which permits the entry free of duty of lace machinery prior to May 1, 1910. Hides, hosiery and gloves were left as reported by the committee, hides remaining free and an increased duty being presented for gloves and stockings.

Wool Growers Protest.

Wheeling, W. Va., April 10. — The wool growers of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, in separate session, protested against the passage of schedule K of the Payne tariff bill in its present form. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

MEXICO'S GREAT PRESIDENT.

The announcement that President Diaz, of Mexico, has yielded to the solicitations of numerous delegations of his countrymen and consented to serve for another term in his high office, should life and strength continue for that length of time, may cause the knowing ones to smile. It is quite possible that the appeal was made for the sake of keeping up appearances, and that the president had signified in advance his pleasure to continue at the head of the government. What may have gone on behind the scenes need not worry us. What appears in the open we can understand, and understanding, approve. We cannot justly measure Mexican methods or Mexican standards by our own, but we have seen this rugged statesman at the head of affairs in our sister republic practically for a generation, and what he has done for his country during that time constitutes one of the most luminous chapters in contemporaneous history.

Briefly under his administration Mexico has enjoyed what for any extended period she never experienced before—peace and progress, the one profound, the other little less than marvelous considering the basic conditions with which the start was made. He has made Mexico a great republic with a population more that three quarters as large as that of Spain. Religious freedom has been established; education has been made compulsory; old obligations have been made compulsory; old obligations have been discharged and new resources for public improvements have been developed on an unprecedented scale. Wages have more than trebled and the capital of the country is now an orderly city with a population of nearly half a million. The republic has come a highly respected factor in world politics and international relations. It has a stable currency and has developed its rich resources as has never been done before.

Realizing by a backward glance all that he has accomplished it is not difficult to believe that there was more sincerity in these recent solicitations than the cynics are disposed to credit them with. Certainly the best citizens of Mexico must rejoice in the change of conditions established in that country and desire its continuance. There has been not so much a peaceful revolution as a transformation. We believe that public opinion and feeling have at last crystallized into patriotism, and that Mexico can at last boast what she never had before, a nation spirit. No other ruler in the world enjoys higher respect and honor from our own government than President Diaz. Mexico has become our good sister, and a family quarrel has long been unknown. We can then congratulate Mexico and rejoice on our own account that this great statesman is still to continue at the head of his country's affairs.

A PRACTICOUS DEPENDENCY.

Sentimentalists have called Porto Rico the forgotten island; pretty soon other folks will be calling it the tiresome island. "Like a porcupine—rolled up wrong way—tormenting himself with his prickles," wrote the judicious poet. Porto Rican politicians, many of them at any rate, are that sort. Affairs would go much better in the island—very much smoothly and comfortably—if the house of delegates, the executive council and Governor Regis H. Post would dwell together inunity. But they won't or anyhow they don't. Last Saturday every member of congress found in his mail an editorial article from a San Juan newspaper "setting" forth that the executive council has snubbed the house of delegates by "abruptly adjourning after rejecting the popular branch's budget, and that Governor Post has been paying ("from the public funds") a $100 fine imposed upon a Mayaguez doctor for contempt of court. The Porto Rican editor pronounces this executive act "the most reprehensible ever committed by any of our American governors." He says that Porto Rico is demoralized, all broken up, on the down grade toward insurrection and anarchy.

Yet one could name several islands of the seas that are worse off in this present year of grace 1909 than Porto Rico, Monday evening the "New York Post" published a letter from there. The doors of more a thousand public schools are now open, the correspondent writes to Porto Rico's boys and girls. The island has 435 miles of macadamized roads two-thirds of the roads made since 1898. The railroad around the island—projected by the paniards and postponed by them to "manana"—is built and ready for business. The harbors of San Juan and Ponce have been put in shipshape condition. The net public debt of the island is only 2½ percent of the assessed valuation. In 1898 the island exported less than $3,000,000 worth of sugar; last year it exported more than $14,000,000 worth. "Ten years of American rule," says the correspondent, "have done more for Porto Rico than four centuries of spanish administration."

We wish the Porto Ricans were more contented under American rule, and happier. We hope they will be presently.

Brushed From Load of Hay.

While perched on a load of hay, Wm. Meyer, of Wolf's Store, was brushed from his seat by being struck by an over hanging limb of a large tree, near Smullton. On striking the ground his hip was badly injured, as an examination at the office of Dr. Bright, of Rebersburg, revealed, but he was later removed to his home, and at present the injury is very much better. Mr. Meyer was on his way to Penn Hall to which place he set out to deliver the hay.—Centre Reporter.

Weak Heart Action

There are certain nerves that control the action of the heart. When they become weak, the heart action is impaired. Short breath, pain around heart, choking sensation, palpitation, fluttering, feeble or rapid pulse, and other distressing symptoms follow. Dr. Miles Heart Cure is a medicine especially adapted to the needs of these nerves and the muscular structure of the heart itself. It is a strengthening tonic that brings speedy relief. Try it.

"For years I suffered with what I thought was stomach trouble, when the doctors told me I had heart trouble. I had tried many remedies, when the Dr. Miles' almanac came into my hands, and I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I have taken three bottles, and now I am not suffering at all. I am cured and this medicine did it. I write this in the hope that it will attract the attention of others who suffer as I did."

She has been in the hospital on Blackwell's island since the birth of the baby.

"I have used your Peruna and am happy to say that I have received much benefit. I have been troubled with catarrh for many years, and have never found benefit from other medicine. But since using your Peruna I have been quite relieved from my trouble.

"I can most heartily and sincerely recommend Peruna to any one who is afflicted as I was, with the sure expectation that they will find relief."

Colds and Indigestion.

Mr. C. G. Convers, President Cold Storage Ice and Coal Co., Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

"I had been troubled with a very serious case of catarrh for a number of years. Having tried many prescriptions by good physicians, I found myself no better.

"On the advice of a friend who had used Peruna with good results, I purchased a bottle. The results were so good that I continued using it. Have perhaps in the past three years used a dozen bottles, which have kept me from the trying troubles of catarrh. I am never without a bottle of Peruna in my house. One always gets relief from colds and indigestion if you have Peruna."

Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, 416 5th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., an attorney from Little Rock, Ark., now residing in Washington, writes:

Harrisburg, Pa., April 14.—The trial of Joseph M. Huston, architect of the state capitol, upon the charge of conspiracy to defraud the state, was postponed when called in the Dauphin county court because of a plea that the defense would be prejudiced by the severance granted to John H. Sanderson, the contractor; William P. Snyder, ex-auditor general, and James M. Shumaker, former superintendent of grounds.

It is probable that June 14 will be selected by District Attorney Weiss for the trial.

SNOW STALLS TRAINS

Blizzard Ties Up the Railroads In Colorado.

Denver, Colo., April 14.—A heavy snowstorm in the vicinity of Corona and Fawn, Colo., on the continental divide, has played havoc with passenger trains on all railroads, according to advices received from these points. Ran Marathon Race and Died.

Pittsburg, April 14.—William H. Howick, seventeen years old, and apparently as sturdy as any other pupil in his school, died as the result of running a Marathon race three weeks ago. Howick won the race, but has never been well since.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine it is unequaled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

The Editor's Kick.

A lawyer charges a man $10 for 10 minutes' conversation and insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription and the patient says: "Oh pshaw is that enough?" An undertaker charges $100 for conducting a funeral and he is perfectly lovely with every body inside and out side the family. A man buys a gold brick and apologizes for not having bitten before. An editor walks a mile in the hot sun to get the acts of a wedding or social function and spends three hours writing it up and tells lies praising people until he hates himself. Then if he makes an insignificant omission or charges 3 cents straight for three extra copies he is a stingy careless, good-for-nothing old cuss, who never gets anything right and charges four times the price of city papers twice as large.—Marion, (Ga.) Record.

Graduating Exercises at Rebersburg.

The graduating exercises of the Rebersburg High school were held on Friday evening of last week, when eleven young people were graduated. This school has been under the able instruction of ex-county Supt. C. L. Gramley, and the graduates of the class of 1909 were so proficient in the rendition of the different topics assigned to each member that it was the general comment of those in attendance that the exercises were equal to those of schools who make more pretentions than does this little educational town. Hon. W. C. Heinle delivered the Commencement address.

The wind storm which swept the country last Wednesday was one of the most severe and destructive known to many of our citizens. One person was injured and considerable damage done. While doing some work about the barn Burtine Butler had occasion to open the large doors. One of them was caught by the strong wind and hurled shut with great force, striking Mr. Butler and knocking him down. He was unconscious for some time but an examination showed he was not seriously injured. He was able to be around again the next day. During the day several buildings were partly unroofed, four corn cribs blown over and several trees uprooted. Why he Does It

"It isn't often that we have faith enough in medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said druggist C. M. Parrish to one of his many customers, "but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Dr. Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized me to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half price, 25 cents and although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back unsatisfactory.

"One great advantage of this specific" he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried the in vest pocket or purse and everyone has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water.

"We are still selling the specific at half-price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition ought to take advantage of this opportunity."

KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE
COUGH SYRUP

Aged 105 and Yet Active

Near Three Springs, Huntingdon county, lives a woman who, at the age of 105 years, is more active than many only half that old. She is Mrs. Rachel Yingling, and not only is she in excellent health physically, but is in possession of all her mental faculties. Mrs. Yingling was born in Maryland in 1804, and when a girl moved to Cove valley. She was 35 years old when she was married to Ephraim Yingling, and she is the mother of four children, now living. Until she was 100 years old Mrs. Yingling took delight in walking to her old home in Cove valley, 16 miles away.

Mrs. Yingling's maiden name was Stambough, and she comes from hardy Dutch stock. Some of the stories she tells of her girlhood days are extremely interesting. Her first home in Cove valley was innocent of wooden doors, homemade blankets serving that purpose. These afforted but poor protection against wolves, catamonts and bears that infested the mountains at that time.

Until three years ago Mrs. Yingling was able to read without the use of glasses. Her memory has failed her some within the last few years, but other wise there seems to be no impairment of her faculties, either physical or mental. Mrs. Yinglings is a member of the Methodist church, and takes great interest in the work of the congregation.

An Immense Cave.

A wonderful cavern was discovered last Saturday at Fremont, Snyder county 12 miles distant from Selinsgrove.

By water dripping from the celling for thousands of years limestone stalagmites and stalactites have been formed and in many instances they met and formed pretty columns.

One unique formation is a series of graduated stalactites receding in length from 32 inches to one foot, and by scraping a stick along the pendent harp like formation a scale of musical sounds can be produced. At another place a well defined profile of a human face has been made in the rock. So marvelous are the acoustic properties of one section of the inclosure that a whister is audible a hundred feet away.

The main cavern is 1,300 feet long, 12 to 15 feet nigh and averages 100 feet in width. Leading off from this are numerous side chambers, which have not been explored, because the small apertures make them inaccessible. Torrents of water can be heard rushing through these ink black halls, and in one there seems to be a fall over which a large volume of water decends with a roar. Streams of cool water wind through the main cave and make walking difficult.

Man, Horse and Buggy Carried Down Stream.

Howard Southard, of Beech Valley, had a narrow escape from drowning on Sunday afternoon. He, with his horse and buggy, was carried for quite a distance down Loyalsock creek, the animal having slipped and fallen while trying to ford the stream. The horse was drowned, but Mr. Southard escaped.

Mr. Southard was attempting to drive across the creek says the Williamsport Sun, at a place known as Woolever's crossing, above the mouth of Wallis run. When about in the centre of the stream the horse stumbled on some boulders in the bottom of the creek and fell. The water was deep enough to cover the animal, which was so entangled in the shafts and harness that it was unable to help itself. At the risk of his own life Mr. Southard made a desperate effort to release the horse, but could do nothing. The current was so swift that the horse, buggy and man were carried on down the stream for a considerable distance. Mr. Southard finally managed to get ashore and owes his escape, he claims, to the heavy overcoat he was wearing, which acted in the capacity of a life preserver. The buggy and harness were later saved, but the horse drowned.

State College Horse Show.

At a meeting of the committee having in charge this show it was decided to hold the next exhibition Saturday, October 23, 1909. The show last year was regarded as a success in every particular, and will probably be better this year. The date is set and the announcement made early that prospective exhibitors may have time to make the desired arrangements. There were more than a hundred entries last year, filling about twenty classes. With a few minor changes the rules and classifications will be the same as last year.

The Conversion of Saul—Acts ix: 1-30.

Golden Text—He fell to the earth and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul why perseoute thou me? Acts ix:4

Verses 1-2—From experience, philosophically, theologically, psychologically, or any other way, how do you account for the bitter hatred of Saul for Christians.

After his conversion, did he show the same hatred toward those who opposed Christians?

Does history justify the statement that zealous religionist, who have not known nor experienced the love of God, have been exceedingly cruel and bitter men?

Verses 3 4—What was the nature of the light that shined around Saul? (See Acts xxii:6, xxvi:13, I Cor. xv:8.

Whose voice was it that Saul heard?

What reason is there to believe that this was a real voice with outward sound?

Is there any sinner so bad that Jesus does not call him to repent?

Had Saul actually been persecuting Jesus? (See Matt. 25 40)

If we hurt or help a Christian, is that actually done to Jesus?

Is there a sense in which a Christian is the actual Christ?

Verse 5.—Did Saul know from the first who it was that spake to him?

Does it always consciously hurt to fight against God?

Does wrong doing always hurt whether done in ignorance or not?

Verse 6—What makes sinners always trouble when God reproves them for their sins?

At what stage does God forgive a convicted sinner?

When was Saul actually converted?

Why did not Jesus tell Saul there and then, what he wanted him to do?

Verse 7—Why does the supernatural always frighten people?

Verses 8-9—What had blinded Saul?

How did Saul spend the days that he was without sight?

Did he fast because he had no desire for food, or was it a religious fast?

Is fasting of any use in these days as a help to spiritual life?

Verses 10-12—May the ability to hear God speak, be acquired by all true Christians?

Have you any experience of God telling more than one person the same thing, so that when they came to compare experiences, God's message was confirmed?

Will God always prepare us for our work, and prepare the work for us?

Verses 13-16—Is God pleased, or displeased, if we do not accept what he says when it is not clear to us?

Verses 17-18—Did Saul at this time receive the Holy Ghost, or at the time of his conversion, and when do Christians generally receive him? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 19-22—Do all genuine converts like Saul, commence immediately to get others converted?

What was the power in Saul which gave him his great zeal, and is the same power available for every christian?

Verses 23-25—If a person feels, or acts, in a bitter spirit toward one of a different faith, is that proof that he is not in touch with the true God?

Verses 26-30—Are Christians justified in being cautious in receiving strangers?

What is the best way for a young convert to show he really is a Christian?

Is a true earnest aggressive Christian, as liable to give offense in these days as was Saul?

Putting food into a deceased stomach is like putting money into a pocket with holes. The money is lost. All its value goes for nothing. When the stomach is diseased with the allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the food which is put into it is largely lost. The nutrition is not extracted from it. The body is weak and the blood impoverished.

The pocket can be mended. The stomach can be cured. That sterling medicine for the stomach and blood, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acts with peculiar promptness and power on the organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a positive cure for almost all disorders of these organs, and cures also such diseases of the heart, blood, liver and other organs, as have their cause in a weak or diseased condition of the stomach.

Dr Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation—one a gentle laxative, two or three for a cathartic.

"PLAY BALL!" IS THE CRY TODAY

American League Season Opens With Two Games.

Washington, April 12.—Last month Washington had an inauguration day that was a fairly big thing in its line. Today it has another that is even bigger in the eyes of the men and women and little children who turn first to the sporting page to see what the baseball players have been doing. With the playing of the game today between the Washington and New York teams here and the Boston-Philadelphia game in Philadelphia the American league baseball season will be pried open.

All roads lead to the Senators' park today. The indications are that the show in the building with the big dome, where the tariff is being discussed, is running a very dismal second in public interest. The senators and representatives are going to play "hookey," and even President Taft is expected to forget the cares of office for awhile and go to see the game. He is one of the leading fans of Cincinnati, his home town, and has lost many a bet on the Reds' failures to win pennants.

Tomorrow there will be a rest all around for the ball players, and on Wednesday comes the grand opening, when all sixteen teams of the two big leagues will be on the job. In the American league Chicago will play at Detroit, Cleveland at St. Louis, while New York and Washington will clash again here and Boston and Philadelphia will again forget brotherly love in Philadelphia. While all this is happening in the American league, the National league will have openings in New York, Boston, Cincinnati and Chicago. The visitors who will be entertained in those cities will be, respectively, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and St. Louis.

War on Mosquitoes and Flies.

New Orleans, April 12.—The entire south has enacted uniform laws against the mosquito and the house fly as undesirable pests, who under no circumstances will be permitted to survive in inhabited communities. The health officers have not forgotten the lesson taught them in 1905 when yellow fever prevailed.

Robbers Gag Girl and Loot Home.

Springfield, Mass., April 12. — Two masked robbers entered the home of Alderman A. H. Rogers, in Temple street, bound and gagged a daughter, Miss Nell Rogers, who was alone, and stole all the silverware in the house and made their escape.

American-Born Princess Dead.

Rome, April 12.—Princess Elizabeth Brancaccio, who was Elizabeth Hickson-Feld, of New York, died here after a long illness. The marriage of Prince Salvatore Branciccio and Miss Hickson-Feld took place at Paris in 1870.

Thirty Hurt In Trolley Crash.

Kansas City, Mo., April 12.—Thirty people were hurt, some of them seriously, when two crowded trolley cars collided at Sixth street and Quindaro avenue, in Kansas City, Kan.

AIM AT UPLIFTING NEGRO

Colored Baptists Holding Christian Conference in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 12.—A Christian conference called to consider matters affecting the welfare of the negro race in America was begun in this city today under the auspices of the negro members of the Baptist denomination.

The conference, which will last for three days, has called together 500 delegates, representing churches in Pennsylvania, the middle Atlantic and New England states, the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia. Some of the leaders of the negro race in the United States are in attendance.

BAPTIZED IN ICY WATER

Eighty Recruits For the "Navy of the Lord" Immersed.

St. Louis, Mo., April 12. — While thousands of persons struggled for points of vantage, 80 of the 125 recruits for the "Navy of the Lord," a negro church, were immersed in the icy waters of the Mississippi river by Rev. J. B. Parker, who is called "the admiral" by his converts. The baptized negroes, after running from the water, changed their garments in a nearby boiler shop. Forty-five of the recruits turned their backs upon the "navy" when they felt the cold water.

Negro Snatches $8000 and Escapes.

Augusta, Ga., April 12.—Employes of the Southern railway here report that at Denmark, S. C., a negro seized a grip containing $8000 in currency, the property of N. G. Evans, of Edgefield, S. C., leaped from a moving train and escaped into the woods. Mr. Evans was riding in the day coach and the grip was by his side when the thief snatched it.

Killed Cabby For Demanding Fare.

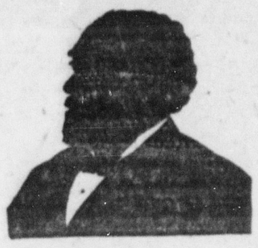
Dr. Pierce's Health Talks

The miracle of motherhood is often overshadowed by the misery of motherhood. The great functional changes which are incident to child bearing leave their mark for life on many a mother. Some women offer up their lives as a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood. A far greater number live on in ceaseless misery. Their strength fails, their beauty fades, they have no ambition and no enjoyment in life. To every woman

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription



Offers escape from the pains and perils of motherhood. Taken during the period of waiting and anticipation this medicine strengthens the body, nourishes the nerves, and prepares the whole womanly system for the coming of baby. It also insures an abundant supply of nourishment for the child.

The mind feels bright and buoyant. There is no anxiety, no dread, but in its place a happy anticipation of the baby's coming, which counts for the future happiness of the child unborn. The use of "Favorite Prescription" makes the baby's advent easy, and gives abundant vitality to nursing mothers.

There is no alcohol or habit-forming drugs in "Favorite Prescription." It is a purely vegetable medicine.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women. All its ingredients printed on its bottle-wrapper.

The larger success of doctor or druggist is never won by putting love for the dollar above duty to the sick. Protecting the sick, giving them what they ask for when Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is called for, will enrich him in respect, if it does not swell to the utmost his profits.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it.

Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

New Haven Men Will Row In Their English Rigged Shell.

Philadelphia, April 10.—The first of the year's great collegiate water contests will be decided this afternoon on the Schuylkill river, when the eight of Yale university and the University of Pennsylvania eight will row against each other in a two mile race.

Interest in the contest is unusually keen among college men and oarsmen in general owing to the fact that for the first time in the history of American rowing a university crew sitting in an English rigged shell will contend against a crew using the regular American style boat. The Yale men have brought their foreign rigged shell to Philadelphia with them, and a great crowd will line the banks of the Schuylkill to see them row.

In addition to the 'varsity contest, the second crews of the two colleges will have a race. It will precede the main event of the day.

ACCUSE MAN OF KILLING UNCLE

York, Pa., Murder Mystery May Be Solved.

LOCATE TELL TALE GOLD

Money In Possession of David Heckert's Nephew, John Heckert, Caused His Arrest—Charged With Burglary. Father Denies Giving Coin to Accused.

York, Pa., April 9.—It is likely that the mystery surrounding the murder of David Heckert, an aged and wealthy citizen of York, on the night of Feb. 14, 1908, will be unravelled. John Heckert, a nephew of the murdered man, was served with a warrant, charging him with burglarizing his uncle's apartment on the night the brutal crime was committed.

He will be held until Chief of Detectives Charles White can make a thorough investigation of newly acquired evidence. Heckert was arrested on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Chief Detective White gave him a sweating and found in his possession two rare old gold coins, each of the denomination of $5. These coins it was known were possessed by the murdered man.

When asked where he came into possession of them, the prisoner replied that he got them from his father. Heckert's father, who is one of York's most prominent citizens, denied that he had given the coins to his son.

In addition to these two coins, Heckert had a roll of money amounting to about $100.

Ever since the murder of David Heckert was committed, John Heckert, his nephew, who is thirty years old, had been suspected of being guilty of the crime. No conclusive evidence, however, could be secured against the young man.

The uncle was murdered in his bed, having been struck in the head with a blunt instrument, and it is said the murderer secured at least $10,000 in money.

NIAGARA FALLS IS SILENT AGAIN

River is Frozen Solid and the Falls Are Dry.

THE DAMAGE IS $1,000,000

All Boat Houses, Power Plants and Wharves Are Buried Beneath Tons of Ice, Which Lies Glistening Under a Brilliant Sun.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 12.—The voice of Niagara is mute for the second time in the memory of man. The first time was late in February when, following a severe northerly blow, the falls ran dry. Now, following a severe southwester, the river is frozen solid from bank to bank.

Unprecedented weather has brought about unprecedented conditions. On Wednesday of last week the worst gale of the season and the most violent in the history of the weather bureau for April was recorded and, following the lakes and the channel of the Niagara, left ruin in its wake. The solid ice fields of Lake Erie were churned from end to end and piled in a huge, conglomerate mass at the lower end of the lake.

Unable to escape by its natural channels, the level of the river rose by leaps and bounds. The highest flood level recorded from previous years is twenty-eight feet above the normal. Friday night the river was forty feet above the normal.

Water poured over the window sills of the power house of the Ontario Power company and flooded the machines. In the lower stretches of the river, where the ice is packed the hardest, every boat house, every fishing shack with its traps, every pumping station that supplied the summer homes that line the shores, every private landing and the piers of both the International railway and the Niagara Navigation company at Lewiston and Queenston are buried beneath thousands of tons of ice. At Niagara-on-the-Lake the wharf also is overwhelmed and all the bathing houses have been swept from their foundations. Conservative estimates place the damage at $1,000,000. Under a brilliant sun the river lay white and glistening to the horizon. And it was silent, absolutely voiceless.

The best that can be hoped for is a succession of calm, warm days. Then the ice will melt gradually and subside bit by bit.

Her screams for help brought several men, who beat the animal off and saved the woman from death. Several of Mrs. Sayre's ribs were fractured and she sustained serious internal injuries.

SICK MAN ROUTS SURGEONS WITH PISTOL

Leaps From Operating Table as Ether is Administered.

Bellefontaine, O., April 12.—Leaping from the operating table, where he was being placed under the influence of an anaesthetic preparatory to a surgical operation, Earl Hilbolt, a Big Four railway fireman, of this city, overpowered the surgeons, and, rushing downstairs at his home, procured a revolver and kept the doctors at bay for nearly an hour.

"Get out of here or I'll kill you!" said Hilbolt at every approach of the surgeons, and they were finally compelled to leave the house, Hilbolt covering them with his revolver.

His family was unable to dissuade him. The man had been ill of appendicitis, having a second attack, and the surgeons had prepared to operate. He gave his consent, and the ether was being administered. The doctors say the patient had reached the excitement stage when he made his sensational escape.

NEW STATE ROADS.

Work to Begin on Stretches Near Bellefonte.

With the advent of spring members of the State Highway Commission have been busy planning for state road construction for the year 1909 and as soon as the appropriation for that purpose has been passed and the bill signed by the Governor, active work on the different stretches to be built this summer will be started.

Since several applications are pending in Centre county to be built this summer the residents of the districts affected are naturally interested in the progress being made toward the final consummation of the work. Upon the application of Boggs township, for a stretch of state road extending from the Milesburg bridge through the township named to the line of Union twp, considerable preliminary work has already been finished. This consists of the preliminary survey and staking off of the road to be constructed, the running of levels and other necessary work thereon. This piece of state road is also supplemented by a stretch through Union township, from the line of Bogge to the Unionville borough line, which is also ready for the actual work of construction. The commissioners and the highway department have both approved the applications, and bids will be advertised for as soon as the highway appropriation is passed. This stretch of state road will therefore be the first on the list of Centre county applications to be constructed.

But the stretch of road which will be of most interest to the residents of Bellefonte, as well as the most expensive, proportionately, will be that extending through the borough of Bellefonte from the borough line near the American Lime and Stone company's quarries, where it joins the strip of state road in Spring township; on Linn street to Allegheny street, on Allegheny street to Bishop, and east on Bishop street to the borough line near the farm of Thomas Feaver. About one week ago Charles W. Boeler, of Hollidaysburg Blair county, a civil engineer of the State Highway Department under the direction of Joseph W. Hunter, State Highway Commissioner, was in Bellefonte in conference with the borough authorities relative to building this road in the near future. City engineer J. Henry Wetzel has been authorized to make the preliminary survey as soon as possible, and then the details of constructions will be decided.

Though as yet the exact method of construction of this piece of road has not been settled, it has been thought advisable by those having the plans under consideration to build the regulation state road, either telford or of trap or limestone rock on Linn and Bishop streets, and to pave that portion on Allegheny street. The paving is to be from curb to curb on Allegheny street from Howard to Bishop street, while from Howard to Linn the paving will be but twenty to twenty-five feet wide. These plans are not definately decided upon, therefore may be changed as expediency may demand when face to face with the construction. As yet, also, the preliminary matters of survey, staking out and grading have not been completed, so that it is impossible to say just how soon work will be commenced, though it is practically assured that this road will also be constructed just as soon this summer as arrangements can be completed. With the completion of these three pieces of state road this summer all of which will be constructed as soon as the appropriation for the work is forthcoming, this section of the county will have nine or ten miles of state road in a continuous stretch, which will certainly prove a pleasure to all who travel thereon, and be an example worth considering by other townships in the county.

Life Guards.

The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the king's household, but yours, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases find allies in the very elements, as colds, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia do in the stormy month of March. The best way that we know of to guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attack, gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

Academy Defeats Pine Grove Mills.

The Academy nine has started out this season very auspiciously. They have played three games with as many strong nines and while they lost but one with a little experience on the diamond prior to that game with the college boys, they might have won that game also as no runs were scored after the first two innings. For twenty-five successive innings the Academy boys have allowed but two runs to be scored upon them.

In the three games thus far played an average of less than three runs have been scored against them. On Saturday afternoon Pine Grove Mills brought a supervisingly good nine to Bellefonte and with Martz formerly of Susquehanna University in the box held the Academy down to the small score of 5-2. During the remaining innings the Academy bunched hits and cleverly won out, succeeding in getting at least ten hits off Martz. Wagner Dillon pitched for the local and only allowed them five hits.

—The greatest wind storm known here in years passed over this section Wednesday afternoon and night. In the surrounding country orchards were greatly damaged. At Unionville the wind blew the roofs off the barns of Samuel Emerick and Samuel Brugger.

—Rev. C. O'Hanlon delivered a very interesting lecture in Petrikin Hall Tuesday evening, the subject being "Hamlet." Rev. O'Hanlon is an eloquent speaker, a great Shakespearian scholar and a finely educated gentlemen. His audience was very much pleased with his address.

—The Bellefonte hatchery has sent out this spring 3,500,000 trout fry, and it is claimed they were all of an unusual hardy variety. This places the Bellefonte hatchery second in rank in the state and at the present rate of growth it will only be a question of a few years until it will stand first —Elwood Mateer well known in Bellefonte from his connection with the Belle Telephone company here several years ago, on Tuesday succeeded D. I. Swenk as manager of the Bell exchange in Altoona, his home town. Mr. Mateer has recently occupied the position of manager of the Lebanon exchange.

—William A. Bowes has disposed of his stock of goods in his general store located in the Singer building at Blanchard to Harry Kunes and Milton Kunes, who will trade under the firm name of Kunes Brothers. Milton Kunes, who is postmaster at Blanchard. has moved his office into the store. Both are well known young men born and raised in Blanchard, sons of Wm. Kunes.

—On Wednesday afternoon as Chester and Frank McCormick, two employees of the Commercial Telephone Company were driving across the rail road track at Krider's station they were struck by a train on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvani. The horse was instantly killed, the buggy smashed. Fortunately the men escaped with slight bruises and a bad shaking up.

—Mrs. Belle Doughty, of Warren, Pa. Deputy Great Commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees is here, staying at Mrs. Dr. Edith Schad, for the purpose of organizing a hive of that order. She is a very successful organizer having organized the hives at Williamsport, Lock Haven, Altoona, Hollidays, etc. The insurance rates are very reasonable and it is a fine opportunity for ladies wishing fraternal insurance to avail themselves of it as the opportunities for women in that line are very few.

—N. E. Robb, superintendent of contracts for the American Union Telephone company, with headquarters at Harrisburg, is in Sugar Valley looking after the interest of the Sugar Valley Telephone company, that has had new life injected into it. Ten years ago the United company reached Loganton but only five phones could be placed. Now everbody acknowledges the necessity of the service and within a few days there will be seventy-five 'phones in active operation in the valley with a new and up-to-date exchange in the Loganton National bank building.

—Philipsburg is to have a new rural free delivery route to be established on June 1 1909.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Sheckler are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter which was born at their home on on Thomas street Sunday afternoon.

—Please take notice. The Co-Workers of the St. John's Lutheran church will meet this coming Thursday evening April 15th, at the home of Mr. John F. Garthoff, on Reynolds Avenue. Everybody is invited to attend and will be made welcome.

—At a meeting held at St. Johns Episcopal church Monday evening the following vestrymen were elected: Col. W. Fred Reynolds, Dr. George F. Harris, Dr. J. L. Seibert, J. L. Montgomery, John M. Shugert, H. C. Quigley, W. C. Lingle, John M. Bullock and Edward H. Richards.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Cole are rejoicing over the birth of a seven bound baby boy that arrived at their home April 12th, 1909. It has been named Louis Franklin Cole. Both mother and child are doing nicely. Mr. Cole is Professor in charge of mathematics at the Bellefonte Academy.

—Our borough dads should get busy and try to alleviate some of the stifling and disease dangerous dust that fills the town now and which the automobiles make worse with their swift movement and close of low lying bodies keep it constantly stirred up. The lack of action the first week of March is sorely deplored when the opportunity was so good to get the disease filled filth off the streets when it was a thick mud now it has become a hard easily ground up dirt and will give us trouble all the year.

—A very nice and large audience attended Graustark Monday night and in the main were well pleased with the play which was put on in a very nice way. The ladies parts were well acted by all of them and the vivacity and enthusiasm and dramatic effects by the Princess and the Countess Dagmar were very good and effective. The leading men did fairly well but they did not look their part and that spoils it all. Instead of being large well built sixfooted specimens of American manhood, they were undersized. Of course there was lots cut out of the play that would have made it run along more understandingly could it have been in, but that would have made it too long, but the cutting out of character, and the doubline up, sort of spoiled the book sense, that those who have read the book, had a reason to expect to be in the play.

—If the school board is going to build a new school house this year it certainly behooves them to get busy as valuable time is going by which could be saved if prompt action is taken. The new building is to be at the rear of the old one so the foundations could be completed before school stops and the big end of this building will be the foundations and the work of digging out for them. The instant schools are over the dismantling of the old building could go ahead and the stone used as fast as it is taken off the old one in running the first walls of the new one which is we believe the intention. In that way with a contractor who is a pusher the building could be finished by the middle of September but unless that is done it will be more likely the first of November. It will take all of a month a half to dig and build the foundations and yet even the contract has not been let.

—Somebody should instruct the fire alarm man at the electric light station how to blow the whistle so people can act intelligently instead of the way he does it now. The last dozen alarms it has been almost impossible for a person to tell where the fire was located. Some set system would be much better for instance post your rules for the blowing of the alarm at the station as follows: and a strict carrying it out would be intelligible to all, The alarm itself blow, while you count ten slowly, stop count three, blow the ward signals right after as follows; say the South Ward which is two, blow while you count three stop while you count two, blow while you count three again, then stop while you count ten, and again blow only the ward signals, repeating the ward signals three times, the general alarm only once. In that way all will know and it will be plain to all It is hoped this suggestion will be adopted:

Pennsylvania Railroad Rewards Faithful Employees.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company and various subsidiary companies will this year award nearly $11,000 in prizes to employes for excellence in track maintenance. Of this sum, $5,400 will go to supervisors and their assistants on the main line between New York and Washington, and Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The purpose in offering these liberal premiums is to encourage those in charge of the tracks over which the bulk of the Company's passenger trains run, to keep their sections as free as possible from irregularities that cause jars and discomforts to the Company's patrons.

To insure that the prizes shall be awarded upon accurate data, a committee of Maintenance of Way officers goes over the line every few weeks during the year, in a car attached to one of the regular high-speed trains. Two glasses of water are placed on the sills of two rear windows and every spill of water is counted against the score of the section of track over which the train is passing.

To make the record even more accurate, an instrument has been specially designed to register every vibration of the car, either vertically or horizontally. This instrument, which is placed in the floor of the car, has two stems, with a hammer on the end of each. These steams are of flexible steel, and vibrate one vertically and the other horizontally with every jar of the car. The movements of the stems are recorded by pedometers giving the number of vibrations, while cyclometers record the entire distance covered by the vibrations for the trip. Thus a severe vibration affects a greater cyclometer record than a slight irregularity. The smaller the amount of vibration, the better the track.

This instrument is, of course not infallible, and does not undertake to indicate a low joint, the elevation of a curve or anything about the track more than its good and bad riding qualities, including line and surface. But when the record it makes is averaged with the number of pedometer readings and "spills" of water, and some allowance made for relative speeds, a fairly accurate estimate can be made of the riding qualities of the various sections of track. Upon the records so arrived at the prizes are awarded.

A Slight Fire

A slight fire occurred at the residence of W. B. Mingle, Esq., in Centre Hall, Friday morning about seven o'clock. Mr. Mingle was about to leave the house when smoke was discovered, and on going to his sleeping room on the second floor, he found the interior well ablaze. He had the presence of mind to rush in to the room, close the windows and doors and then with considerable effort the flames were extinguished.

The fire originated by a bed blanket coming in contact with a stove pipe. Several pieces of bed clothing, some garments, windows shade, and curtians were burned, and the carpet damaged, as well as the paper and paint in the room. Had the flames been undisturbed a few minutes more, it would have been difficult to master them—Centre Reporter.

The Lily and the Prince.

In the forthcoming production of the new romantic drama, "The Lily and the Prince", at the Opera House on April 20. Miss Marguerite Blake as the Lily will be pitted as the innocent girl, with the purity of the lily, against the intrigues and unscrupulous methods of that beautiful arch poisoner, Lucrezia Borgia. The action of the play is in the sixteenth century in Italy, and deals with the attempe to overthrow the Papal states. An atmosphere of romance and intrigue is woven about the play, while the eye is rested and satisfied with the grandeur, elegance and rich coloring of mediaeval costuming and interior hangings.

Will Run a Line of Autoes to Bellefonte

The State College Transportation company has applied to the governor for a charter. The incorporators are William F. Thompson, Charles H. Foster, Irvin L. Foster, A. C. Bowes and William Frear. The object is to run a line of automobile passenger cars between State College and Bellefonte on a regular schedule. The cars have been ordered and the company will begin operations as soon as the cars arrive. The line will soon no doubt be self sustaining, providing the transportation charges are low enough to make it an object for people to travel in the autos instead of the cars. The passenger traffic will very probably affect the Bellefonte Central the most

New Fish Preserve.

A number of sportsmen from Howard have taken the preliminary steps toward forming a club to be known as the "Marsh Creek Fishing Club," the object of which is to promote the growing and culture of game fish and the maintenance of a suitable stream for the purpose of catching game fish. On Monday, May 17 an application for a charter will be made to Judge Ellis L. Orvis. The members of the club propose to maintain Marsh Creek as their private fishing stream, with the concurrence of the owners of land through which it flows.

Selinsgrove Shaken by Social Sensation

Selinsgrove had a decided sensation Wednesday, the outgrowth of an arrest made in the Selinsgrove telephone exchange at 1.30 o'clock a. m. The defendant in the case is Dr. Williams, of Port Trevorton, who was arrested at the instance of his wife, who charges him with paying undue attention to Miss Mabel Gemberling, a telephone operator at Selinsgrove. Dr. Williams and Miss Gamberling were at the exchange when Constable Wolf, accompanied by Mrs. Williams and Manager Dreese, served the warrant. Williams was given an immediate hearing before Justice of the Peace Keck, and furnished bail in the sum of $300 for trial at court, Landlord Bingeman, of a local hotel, being his bondsman. Miss Gamberling immediately resigned her position at the exchange. It is not believed that she will be implicated in the domestic troubles o the Williams' except to be called as a witness in court when the case comes to trial at Middleburg.

While Visiting Sick Father Harry Fitzgerald's Store Robbed.

On Friday April 2nd. Harry E. Fitzgerald, of Columbus, Ohio, was summoned to Bellefonte on account of the serious illness of his father, William Fitzgerald, and he and his wife arrived here on Saturday intending to stay several days, at least. On Sunday evening, however, Mr. Fitzgerald, who conducts a dental supply house in Columbus, received a telegram stating that his store had been broken into on Saturday night and gold filling and other articles estimated in value anywhere from five to seven thousand dollars had been stolen. At the same time Mrs. Fitzgerald received a telegram stating that her sister had been taken suddenly sick and her condition was regarded as extremely critical and asking her to come home at once.

The telegrams were received after the 4 44 train had left for Tyrone and Mr. and Mrs Fitzgerald were in a dilemma what to do until Charles Mensch agreed to take them to Tyrone in his automobile so they could catch the 11 05 train west. They left here immediately after supper, Mrs. Harter accompanying them and taking Will Keichline along in case anything went wrong with the machine, and the trip was one they will not soon forget.

They went by way of the Bald Eagle valley and encountered mud so deep in places that the men were compelled to get out and push to get the machine through and when they finally arrived in Tyrone it was only to discover that the western train had been gone twenty minutes or longer. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald were compelled to take the trolley to Altoona where towards morning they got a fast train for Pittsburg.

With all the trouble he had getting to Tyrone Mr. Mensch was afraid to return by way of Bald Eagle valley so decided to make the trip home via Pennsylvania Furnace. They left Tyrone about midnight and got as far as Warriorsmark all right but there they got on the wrong road and didn't know where they were until they arrived at Huntingdon Furnace. They then were compelled to return to Warriorsmark and finally getting on the right road came home by Pennsylvania Furnace and Pine Grove Mills, arriving in Bellefonte at just four o'clock Monday morning. Of course Mensch enjoys telling all about the trip.

A Good Testimonal.

This paper has at various times made mention of the organization of the Concrete Brick and Manufacturing company organized by J. C. Meyer, Esq., J. C. Rowe and others and the intention to erect a plant near the Bellefonte furnace for the purpose of manufacturing concrete brick out of slag. Different samples of the brick have been made and tested here and at State College and in every case the test was highly satisfactory to the promoters. Recently samples of the brick were sent to the Bureau of Building Inspection, of Pittsburg, and on Wednesday Mr. Rowe received the following very flattering letter as a testimonal of the excellent quality of the brick:

MR. J. C. ROWE,
Concrete Brick and Mfg Co.

DEAR SIR:

I have tested the sample brick which you left me, and I find the results to be most satisfactory. I can cheerfully recommend it for its durability, non-absorption qualities and cheapness. We have had quite a number of brick makes left at this office to be tested, and think I can safely say your brick is one of the best that it has been our pleasure to have tested.

Yours very truly,
JOHN P. BRENNAN,
(Asst. Superintendent)

It might be added that the building of the plant for the manufacture of there brick is now as much of an assured fact as any project can be until the erection of the same is actually begun and, because it will mean business for Bellefonte and money for the promoters, we heartily hope for them every possible success.

The Youngest Railroad President

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania held at Philadelphia recently Wallace H Gephart, of this place, was elected President and General Manager of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, to succeed Col. C. M. Clements, of Sunbury. Mr. Gephart will have his offices located at this place. In the future there will be no General Superintendant of the company.

Mr. Gephart is the eldest son of the late J. W. Gephart, and learned the railroad business from the ground up under the direction of his father. He is probably the youngest railroad president in the United States. We congratulate Mr. Gephart on his deserved promotion and the railroad company on having so valued a man in their employee.
